WALK ON THE Wild SIDE

Right: Senior Lisa Oberton is just WILD about the fact that this is her last year of high school.; Below: Matt Conley was this year's WILD Mountaineer!!; Center: What a WILD group! Seniors Leah Salmonsen, Tim Sullivan, Kim Carlson, Angi Sherbourne, and Pat Queeney are letting everyone know how WILD they are.

Above: Seniors Nicole Labbe and Amy Wickman are pictured here posing with a WILD elephant in the . . . jungle??; Right: What are you doing?? Don't let the fact that senior Becky Sleeper appears to be quiet mislead you . . . she really is WILD at heart!!

As we look back at our four years at Wachusett Regional High School, our most memorable moments are the WILD times we had our senior year. Through Homecoming events, like the parade and the semi-formal, and on to Winter Carnival Week and the Lip Sync Contest in February, we let our WILD side show. From the sports awards nights to our musicals, we held on to the WILD fun while still keeping up with academics. And finally when our senior year wound down to an end, we still had our Senior Banquet, Class Trip to Connecticut, and Graduation Day (not to mention our last day of school!!) that provided us with memories that will last us a lifetime.

We, the seniors of Wachusett Regional High School are approaching the end of our final years at this special place. For some it was the best of times, for some it was the worst. Whatever it was, it was a WILD adventure. We invite you to share a portion of that adventure in the following pages . . .

Left: Senior Keri Fitzpatrick's expression shows us that she's just a WILD and crazy kind of girl!!; Center: Steve Dzik and Greg Schaffert sporting Mickey Mouse hats and acting WILD as usual.; Below: These WILD singers, Kerrie Flynn and Kristen Falcone, performing "When I'm Back On My Feet Again"!!

Above: Secretary Sarah Monks shows her strength in snowball throwing. This is the talent that got her elected for four years.

The Queens (And King) of the Jungle . . .

We asked the Senior Class Officers a series of questions that concerned your class and activities of the class. Officers were divided on the most significant event of the last four years for the class. Joanna and Matt both felt Homecoming, 1991 was the best because it brought out class spirit. Sarah and Leah felt that Senior Week and the class supper were great ways to combat senioritis. When asked about their contributions to the class, Joanna felt that she tried to listen to the kids, and with Matt brought their ideas to the attention of the class advisors and other officers. Again, Sarah and Leah were in agreement — both felt they had contributed much to the success of the proms. About their future plans; President Joanna would like to go into political science and run the world (all great dictators have to start somewhere), Leah would like to major in natural resources and conservation and save the earth from destruction, Matt wants to study communications, and Sarah would like to become a physical therapist.

All officers agreed that your 25th reunion in the year 2017 would be one weird out of control, big PARTY!!!!!!

I like to thank all the teachers in special Ed and I'd like to thank Mom and Dad for making me possible. I want a 4*4 truck!!

It entered on the wind one day.
Colorful and free.
It touched many with its spirit,
On its lively journey.
It stayed only a short while,
A symbol of life and beauty.
It fluttered through the fields,
Joyous and carefree.
One day it flew away,
Leaving only memories.
It's greatly missed, yet there is peace.
For I know, again one day I'll see
The beautiful butterfly.
B.B.

Death has taken the soul of a sweet one
Last Saturday when he was planning to have fun
Eddie Pichierri went out on a joy ride
When at seven p.m. he then instantly died.

Eddie's soul has not been set free
And we all must accept what was meant to be
What has occurred is such a terrible shame
And no one person is to take the blame.

His mother said through all of us
She'd like to spend time to discuss
She feels that she could find out
What her son was all about.

Eddie Pichierri in no way deserved
What has so drastically occurred
It is obvious that we all love Eddie
For I know he was not ready.

Eddie was loved since he was conceived
And in no way is it fair what he has received
It is amazing the pain we all bear
But it simply shows that we care.

I want his mother to know
That I really do mourn with her so
There are times I get extremely depressed
For there's no doubt about it he was the best.

Sometimes I just stare at the sky
And ask myself "Why Eddie, Why?"
For at that time I then see
Eddie's sweet eyes staring at me.

Eddie Pichierri

April 17, 1974 — May 11, 1991

Ed will be missed by me and all of his friends. He touched my life as one of my best and close friends. He was always there and almost never had a disagreement with anyone. So ED this song is dedicated to you. We all love you and miss you.

LANCE COLE

Silent Lucidity

Hush now don't you cry
Wipe away the tear drop from your eye
You're lying safe in bed
It was all a bad dream
Spinning in your head
Your mind tricked you to feel the pain
Of someone close to you leaving the game of life
So hear it is another chance
Wide awake you face the day
Your dream is over . . . or has it just begun?
There's a place I'd like to hide
A doorway that I run through in the night
Relax child you were there
But only didn't realize it and you were scared
It's a place where you will learn
To face your fears, retrace the years
And ride the whims of your mind
Commanding in another world
Suddenly, you hear and see
This magic new dimension
I — will be watching over you
I — am gonna help to see you through
I — will protect you in the night
I — am smiling next to you . . . in SILENT LUCIDITY
If you open your mind for me
You won't rely on open eyes to see
The walls you built within
Come tumbling down, and a new world will begin
Living twice at once you learn
You're safe from pain
In the dreams domain
A round trip journey in your head
Master of illusion, can you realize
Your dreams alive, you can be the guide but . . .
I — will be watching over you
I — am gonna help you see it through
I — will protect you in the night
I — am silent next to you . . .

Eddie and his date, Heather Johnson at the Junior Prom.

June, 1992

Dear Members of the Class of 1992:

CONGRATULATIONS! When you get around to reading this you will have received your diploma and be embarking on the next phase of your life. My hope is that your experiences at Wachusett have made a contribution not only to who you are but where you are heading.

The last four years have been significant ones in your lives and in the life of this planet. The changes in the world have gone way beyond anyone's predictions and the perspective for the future has been altered forever. During your high school years the Berlin Wall was dismantled and the Soviet Union ceased to exist; a demographic shift in the United States foretold the future of a multi-cultural and rainbow coalition like the United States has not known before; critics of public education have had a field day despite the fact that this country continues to out stretch all others in the percent of people who are literate and the many who emerge from economic difficulties through education; and a major disease, AIDS, threatens to overwhelm us and make us confront our morals and values along with our life-styles.

And despite all of the changes listed above--and many, many more--I suspect that the greatest change has occurred in you. These four years, which we all pass through, are indeed central to our lives as persons. I hope that you developed habits that will stand you in good stead the rest of your days. I hope that you have developed a compassion and empathy towards others that will always be close to the surface of your being. And, I hope that you have learned that reality starts with our dreams and comes to life through our efforts.

Now as you spread out from Wachusett to numerous college campuses, to jobs, and to changes in life-styles, I invite you always to be a part of your roots--a part of Wachusett. Hopefully the Alumni Association, which you have all joined, will keep in touch with you and provide opportunities for you to come together as a class once again. Our door and hearts will remain open to you.

God Bless.....and keep in touch.....

Expression Theatre

AIDS Facts

Expression Theatre is an organization at WRHS in which teens use drama to educate audiences of parents, teachers, and students about relevant teen issues. They are advised and directed by Linda Salmonsen (WRHS school nurse) and Regina Stillings.

This year's production was titled "AIDS Facts," and it was presented many times to groups outside the Wachusett family. However, the group's most valuable contribution was at Wachusett, during the month of March, three activity periods were devoted to AIDS/HIV education for the Juniors. Expression Theatre gave a performance which then was discussed and used as a springboard for questions in homerooms. Cast members made themselves available to assist in homerooms during the remaining activity periods. The members of Expression Theatre did not work from a prepared script, but rather wrote the play themselves following an AIDS/HIV training program given by Dr. Jerry Davoli, a health educator for the Massachusetts Department of Education and a professor at U. Mass., Amherst.

Mr. Davoli also gave an in-service course on AIDS/HIV awareness to a group of faculty who were to be the coordinators during the homeroom sessions.

Student participants in Expression Theatre include Seniors: Tina Barelli, Matt Conley, Megan Gilbert, Allison McClure, Kelly Stone and Glenn Sullivan; Juniors were Adrian Ballinger, Kiera Garretson, Scott Graves, Christie Guberski, Will Innis, Bill Labonte, Lisa Lemon, Rachel Pitnof, Maria Velentzas and Andrea Ajemian; and Freshmen, Mark Ajemian and Mark Sullivan.

DECA is a national organization for all high school students enrolled in a marketing program. The group prepares its members to be America's future leaders in the fields of marketing, management, and entrepreneurship. There are four main points which are emphasized in DECA. They are leadership development, civic consciousness, social intelligence, and vocational understandings. DECA and marketing students . . . A WINNING COMBINATION!

The School Exchange Program is in its third year of exchanges with the Lycee Aristide Briad of St. Nazarre. Students travel to France in February and then the French students travel to the U.S. in April.

The Art Club does anything that is art oriented, preferably projects that can't be done in the classroom (just "different"), i.e. cartooning, murals, etc.

The Bank Tellers perform the role of student teller and they handle bank transactions for fellow students and teachers in Wachusett.

WE'RE DONE!

1992 Yearbook Staff Shines To Make This Book The Best Ever!

Well, here it is the night before the third deadline, and guess who's the last one working? You women have been absolutely terrific this year. You have truly shone in your ability to make this one of the best, if not the best, yearbooks ever produced at Wachusett. You've also brightened my year considerably.

Special appreciation goes to editor, Tina Barelli. You were truly unique in your pursuit of excellence for this book. Karin George, what can I say, you finished your faculty section and came back for more, much more in athletics. Kara, Caryn, and Jen — do you realize what you did in lunch this year — not a single lost photo and you produced the first ever Senior Index by page location. Jen Martin and Meri Viano, just Juniors, but we sure used you in the Underclassmen and Clubs sections. What a great job — I'll see you next year (and that's a threat!). Thank you to our photographers, Cindy MacDonald and Kerry Owens — you managed to be there when it counted, like at Papa Gino's!

Several other individuals need to be thanked for their work on the book. Thanks to Amy Briggs for typing all the scoreboards, Tricia Schnare and Julie McCullough for your help with Fall sports, and Amy Bloom with the Underclassmen. Thanks to these people who worked on superlatives: Ben Selkow, Megan Gilbert, Asima Gaffar and Philippe Schrobiltgen. Typists were Karen Hancock, Anna Gallant, Nikki Butkewich, Jill D'Innocenzo, Kristen Johnson, Nicole Labbe, Allison McClure, Kristen Meyer, Chris Dodridge, Gregge Highland, Kim Berger, Joanna Paterno and Amanda Whitford. If I've omitted anyone, I'm truly sorry.

Love, Your Advisor,
Mrs. L.

The Wachusett Field Hockey team had another great season on the field. Led by Coach Donna Hagglund and assistant coach, Melissa Campbell; the team posted their third straight year as Mid-Wach champs. One of the highlights of the season was beating Notre Dame Academy by a score of 1-0 after a closely contested, well-matched game. Another great moment was soundly defeating Leominster 3-0 after a first game of the season tie against them. Also, for the second year in a row, Wachusett had the top three scorers in the Mid-Wach League.

Captain Aimee Barrette and Sherry Smith led a team that captured many individual awards. Sherry was a Mid-Wach All Star, and Senior Maggie Giotta was a Senior Classic All Star, Ali Deotte collected the most honors though; she was named a Mid-Wach All Star, Senior Classic All Star, Telegram and Gazette All Star, the team MVP, and the second leading scorer in the Mid-Wach League. Top scoring honors in the league went to Wachusett Junior, Kerry Hagglund.

All in all, a really great season girls.

All in all the Girls Baskethball team had a superb season. The team was led by the leadership of seniors Ali Deotte, Jill Cross, and Mary Gibney, Coach Gately did an excellent job in preparing his young team with skill and discipline for the upcoming season. With only three seniors on this year's squad, next year's team should be outstanding. This year's team did a great job and leave a strong group of juniors and sophomores for next year.

Gymnastics

This year's girls' Gymnastics team had a terrific season. Under the leadership of captains Erin Perkins and Deb Powers and seniors Jana Ash, Cherilyn Bulger, Kim Friberg, Jenn Preston, and Kelly Stone, the team was ever persistent in trying to come out on top. They beat their rival team, Shrewsbury in a tough competition. Freshman Amy Caputo and Sophomore Cara Phillipo were the main scorers for the Mountaineers. Amy Caputo was this year's team MVP. Other top scores were Jodi Phillipo, Kim Friberg, Erin Perkins, Deb Powers, Regina Wolfrey and Kate Singleton. The girls should be proud of their accomplishments and their desire to rise to the occasion.

Although the Varsity Ice Hockey's win-loss record was less than perfect, the potential for growth was there. Senior captains Paul Madellana, Dave Ordung, and Dan Magner kept their team's spirit and pride going. Not only did the captains lead the team in a tremendous season, the incoming freshmen had an outstanding season. Matt Lane, Peter Santom, Pat O'Day, Mark Palmer and Scott McGillicuddy showed us that in the upcoming years the Ice Hockey team will be a worthy threat to opposing players. This year's team MVP was Dan Magner. His leadership helped to bring the team to the top. This year's theme emphasized that it was not if you won or lost the game but how you played the game that really counts.

Annie

This year's fall school musical, "Annie", was presented on December 6, 7, and 8 in the school auditorium. This exceptional performance was directed by Carolyn McClure and produced by Cynthia Childs and David McClure. Music was directed by Brian Brodeur, assisted by Steve Caisse on guitar. Business backstage was kept under control with the help of stage manager Greg Childs.

Annie (Kristin Meyer) is a young orphan who starts off living in a hard-knock orphanage run by the less than kindly Miss Hannigan (Michele Dunlop). However, she finds herself rescued one day from the orphanage by Grace Farrell (Allison McClure), the secretary of billionaire Oliver Warbucks (Seth Aitken). Warbuck's idea is to entertain an orphan for the Christmas holidays. And entertains he does! The rest of the musical is a whirl of adventure. The unsuccessful attempts of Miss Hannigan's brother, Rooster (Adam Cedarbaum) and his girlfriend and partner in crime, Lily St. Regis (Leah Salmonsen) claiming to be Annie's parents in order to receive a large reward does not dampen the fun. Annie proceeds to charm the likes of President Roosevelt (Ryan Curtis), Bert Healy (Glenn Sullivan), and most of all "Daddy" Warbucks. At the end, a Merry Christmas for the entire cast as Annie is officially adopted by "Daddy" Warbucks.

These Are Our Times To Remember

Peter Pan April 10, 11, & 12

The Wachusett Spring Production, Peter Pan, was a continuation of this year's series for the young at heart. As we returned to Neverland, the home of Peter Pan (Allison McClure) and the lost kids, we experienced the pleasure of remaining young forever. We were taken on a number of adventures from becoming friends with Princess Tiger's (Andrea Ajemian) and Princess Lily's (Kristin Meyer) indians to battling Captain Hook (Adam Cedarbaum), Smee (Tina Barelli), and the pirates. From the moment that Peter Pan entered the Darling nursery to fly Wendy (Lisa Powell) and her brothers John (Mark Sullivan) and Michael (Brian Coleman) back to Neverland, to the time that Peter, the indians, and the tick-tocking Crocodile overcame Captain Hook, we were delightfully entertained with thoughts of fairies, magic flying dust, and dancing animals. The tradition continued when Peter Pan returned years later to the Darling nursery to find a grown-up Wendy (Sue Phelps). In the end, Peter returned to Neverland with Wendy's daughter, Jane (Maria Velentzas), for another year of spring cleaning.

Above: The Lion (Simona Gacina) and the Bear (Miriam Rado) add that extra-special touch to Neverland.

television

It's prime time for tuning in and zapping out. It's the musical sounds of success and the pick of the flicks that claim the fame.

IS IT A TWILIGHT ZONE? The time is the 1990s. The place is Beverly Hills. While Jethro and Ellie Mae are swimmin' in the cement pond and eatin' vittles on the rerun channels, we see Beverly Hills 90210 emerging as a prime time winner on the Fox network. It's a soapy drama featuring Luke Perry, Shannen Doherty and Jason Priestley. Perry plays cool, suave Dylan McKay; Priestley is the sweet, sincere Brandon Walsh and Doherty acts the role of Brandon's shy sister Brenda. The storyline mirrors life in very realistic teenage terms and is acted out by an exciting cast that's almost too cool. If you can't handle it, turn your brain off and zap over to the other part of Beverly Hills where you can watch Jethro finish grade school.

HOMER AND MARGE MADNESS: Bart is bratty as ever and continues to be a fun little anarchist on the still popular Simpsons. A new breed of Simpson simplicity exposes itself on the prehistoric format of Dinosaurs. Some episodes touch on ethical issues involved with growing up and growing old. A far cry from the "yabba dabba doo" mentality of the Flintstones.

Saika Nannarello/Shooting Star

The stars of Beverly Hills 90210, Jason Priestley, Shannen Doherty and Luke Perry have been mobbed at malls and buried with fan mail.

STEPPED-UP BRADY BUNCH: Meticulous widow with three kids meets divorced slob with three kids. That adds up to a '90s version of the Brady Bunch called Step by Step. Suzanne Somers and Patrick Duffy play mom and dad to a six-pack of kids who don't get along — it's dysfunctional fun for the whole family. Incidentally, the Brady Bunch holds strong on rerun channels and fans have cult–ivated it. A few theater groups act out episodes from the '60s sitcom. Brady-brained audiences come dressed like Marcia, Jan, Greg, Alice and the rest of the goody-goody gang from the '60s.

TELEVISION THAT'S HOT AND NOT: With Beverly Hills 90210 on the tubular agenda this season, couch potatoes have something to sizzle about. On the back burner, Murphy Brown is cookin', Wonder Years is wonderful and the Fresh Prince of Belair is healthy. Doogie Howser may be kind of a bowser and there's a love/hate relationship going on with Roseanne — either you love it or you hate it. Star Trek: The Next Generation has seen better galaxies and Get A Life needs to get some life.

Viacom/Shooting Star

Heavy hitter Roseanne Arnold is fifty (or is it sixty?) pounds lighter this season and still pulling in hefty ratings on Roseanne

movies

HOOKED ON NEVER-NEVER LAND

On your next trip to Never-Never Land you might just get hooked on Robin Williams. He stars in Steven Spielberg's mod version of Peter Pan called Hook. Watch out for that pixie dust! Julia Roberts plays an adorable seven-inch-tall Tinker Bell. Roberts topped survey lists as an all-around favorite among teens.

THEY REALLY ARE A SCREEEUM. THE ADDAMS FAMILY.

Another revamped classic comes back to haunt the big screen. Don't be scared, it's just Uncle Fester. Or is it? Pugsley, Wednesday, Lurch, Thing and the rest of the gang still hang out at the mansion. If you're dying for a little nostalgic weirdness, this is your movie. Raul Julia and Angelica Huston take the lead as Gomez and Morticia.

FLICKING THROUGH THE FLICKS

The Man in the Moon flies high and Spock loses his Vulcan immunity in Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country. Cool as Ice features a hot slammin' soundtrack while Necessary Roughness delivers a smooth storyline. Fun and funky favorite Keanu Reeves reveals many excellent adventures in the fan mags, and Winona Ryder always rides high on the celebrity lists.

Hot Looks

Way chic, dirt cheap, haute stuff or just plain cool. Fashion demands a look that gets the looks.

THE FLIRT IS IN THE SKIRT: It's pleated, it's flared, it whirls, it swirls. It's a frisky look that's hot. Tune in to All My Children and you'll see the always-fashionable soap vixen Erica Kane twirling through men's lives knocking them dead with her flirt skirt ensembles as she swings and sways through the Enchantment office. It's a smart, provocative look.

IT'S HOT OUTDOORS: These sportsters look marvelous with high-tech runners in bright, vivid colors. The outdoor look that's "in" also includes denim jackets with detail, oversized fleece sweats in bright colors, nylon pullovers in acid colors, striped turtlenecks and long-sleeved T-shirts.

GET RID OF IT: The ever-changing list of "what's out" now includes pleated trousers, khakis, bike shorts, fanny packs, beaded belts, button-down shirts and cowboy boots. Don't toss these items too far — they may be back before you know it.

HOUSE BRANDS MAKE THEIR MARK: Specialty stores give the boot to department stores right where it hurts — in the bucks. Chains like The Gap and The Limited have created images and a cache of their own house brands. Smart shoppers sold on the idea of buying house brands now enjoy fashion that's affordable. Makes sense to watch those fashion dollars.

THE BLACKOUT CONTINUES: Black is still a popular look for the trendsetters. Blend it with ankle boots, leggings, a short skirt and turtleneck. The "mad about plaid" crowd busily mixes the latest combinations of plaid hosiery, purses, shoes and other accessories. Be careful with your selections — it's sad if your plaid goes bad.

It's the latest, it's the greatest. It may not be cool tomorrow, but it sure is hip today.

BAD-ITUDE: bad attitude. BIG HAIR: teased, highlighted and styled; made to withstand hurricanes and tornadoes. BUDS: buddies, pals, friends; your creative community. CHILL: to calm down; variations include chill out, chill down and take a chill pill. COOL-STRUTTERS: individuals who emit an aura of cool; usually dressed in ripped jeans and often looking tragically hip. DWEEBISM: Something a dweeb says that is classically stupid but correct in a very simple, practical way. 5000-GEE: farewell, goodbye, auf weidersehn, hey-hey and HAVE A GOOD DAY; visualize driving away in an Audi 5000. FRESH: cool beyond belief. GET A CLUE: to become aware. GRANOLA: a personality that is composed of a mixture of earthy attributes; usually drinks mineral water, eats rice cakes, wears Birkenstocks and is way into recycling. HYPERTRENDY: the act of anxiously jumping on the trend bandwagon and being among the first to flaunt the latest. KILLER Bs: bimbos, babes, bubbleheads, Bambies and Barbie dolls; usually pretty in a plastic sort of way. MALL-JAMMER: an individual who receives great satisfaction from shopping malls and actively participates in impromptu activities such as bargain hunting, chowing down on mall food, looking cool or just hanging out with the buds. NBT: No Big Thing. NEO-NORMAL: a typical, average individual who is ordinary in a very cool way; usually a conformist who wants to be accepted but not idolized by peers. NOT: negative, used in a pejorative (it's a great word — look it up!) or cynical sense. When used at the end of a statement, it usually means a sarcastic "I don't think so." Drives adults crazy. See Wimp. OPP: Other People's Property; Other People's Problems. PDA: Public Display of Affection. RANDOM: extremely weird, as in "That's really random." TURBO-CRAM: very intense last-minute studying usually done on a Monday morning or immediately prior to an exam. WAY: a superlative, as in "way cool," "way fun," and "way chic." WIMP: a "too nice" person who sacrifices his or her own needs because he or she lacks assertiveness, as in "Arnold Schwarzenegger is a wimp — NOT."

DRIVEN TO NEW EXTREMES:

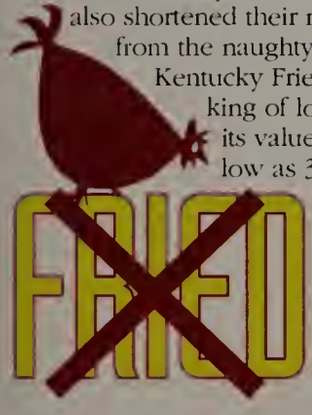
Porsche recently launched the 911 American Roadster to commemorate the 40th anniversary of its first U.S. road racing victory. The Mazda Miata is a hot choice and a fun car to drive. Survey results indicate that Lamborghini, BMW convertible, Jeep and Mercedes also rate high on the dream car list.

TALK ABOUT COOL:

When defining cool, teens talk about attitude and behavior as well as material things. A couple of years ago, a survey respondent said, "A cool person is truly kind with an adventuresome personality and amazing clothes."* This seems to still be true today. In the fall of 1991, students said that having certain trendy material possessions helps a person be cool. More important, though, is personality: acting naturally, not being afraid to be yourself and being friendly. Uncool, on the other hand, is wearing the wrong clothes, but conformity is also uncool (there's more than one way to dress cool). Bad attitude, expressed in such things as smoking, drinking and doing drugs, is especially uncool.

Fast Food: It's Healthy for the Not So Wealthy.

Consumers look for low fat, low cost and high environmental commitment from their favorite fast food franchises. Chains lean toward a larger selection of salads and a bounty of low fat burgers. KFC got rid of the chicken fat by offering "skinfree crispy" and they also shortened their name to an acronym to detract from the naughty "fried" word found in Kentucky Fried Chicken. Taco Bell is the king of low cost leading the way with its value menus; some "things" are as low as 39 cents. All the chains have redesigned packaging to accommodate their environmentally conscious customers. Having paper burger boxes instead of polystyrene makes it a little easier to swallow.



I'll Drink to That — Uh-huh.

This year, Coca Cola widens its lead over Pepsi by 7.7 percent. However, Pepsi is victorious in the battle for image with its notable "Uh-huh" campaign. New Age soft drinks such as bottled water and juice flavored sparklers spill over into the soft drink arena and gain popularity with the health conscious. As the caffeine-free trend grows, coffee sales diminish. They haven't completely chilled — iced coffee, twenty-eight flavors of decaf and specialty coffee marketers brew up vigorous campaigns to perk up profits.

DO IT AGAIN ... AND AGAIN:

Cities are developing and enforcing recycling programs that deal with glass, plastics, paper and other items once considered trash. Conscientious manufacturers have incorporated recyclables into their product lines. Student groups take action to preserve natural resources and make the general population aware of our ecological situation.

Right: Senior Becky Graham shows off her WILD sunglasses at a performance with the music department. Michelle Ballinger agrees!!; Below: Are these guys WILD or what?? Under these masks are WILD women themselves, Tabby Wilson and Kara Fleming.

The 1991-1992 school year definitely let Wachusett students take a walk on the WILD side. Our years at WRHS have been as successful as we students have chosen to make them. We can not change the past; however, we can make the most of our future! Hopefully, during our years at Wachusett we have developed new confidence and skills. We certainly have expressed ourselves, each in our own WILD way and according to our own abilities. But all good times come to an end. Here is where we say farewell to each of you, the WILD Class of 1992.

"Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower,
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay."
Robert Frost

The Mountaineer is an annual publication by the Yearbook Staff of Wachusett Regional High School, 1401 Main Street, Holden, Massachusetts 01520. The towns servtced by the high school are Holden, Paxton, Princeton, Rutland and Sterling. The book was distributed to the graduated Senior class on Tuesday evening, August 18, 1992 at a barbeque for the class.

The book was printed in Winston-Salem, North Carolina at the Josten's/Hunter Publishing Division. The press run was 550 copies. The staff was assisted in the design of the cover, endsheets, title page and divider pages by Rick Brooks of the Creative Resources Department of Josten's and by our company representative, Arnie Lohmann. Much of the pre-planning of the cover, theme, etc. . . . was done as part of class, in-house workshop held at Wachusett on August 15, 16, and 19, 1991.

Our cover is a school-designed lithograph from the Tru-Life line. The base material cover is white (#478) with the addition of numerous mix-to-match colors (predominantly #185 and #527). The design for front and back cover, as well as the spine are all different litho formats with lamination. There is a third process color of black (#142). The trim size is 8½ by 11; and his Smyth-bound. It is wrapped around 120-point binder's board. The program the book is taken from is Majestic.

The endsheets for the book are different for front and back. The front cover is printed on Kelly Green (#347) stock, as is the back endsheet. However, the front is printed with standard black.

The paper used throughout the book was 80-pound dull, printed with standard black ink. 8 pages were printed using the 4-color process. This color must be submitted 5 months prior to publication to be most cost-effective. Artwork was finished by Josten's/Hunter, the originals were supplied by students. Three different type styles were used throughout the book. The primary type style was #220 (Americana), #221 (Americana Italic) and #222 (Americana Bold). Other type styles were used for variety, and according to what the student wished to use.

A tip-in magazine of current trends was inserted between pages 224 and 225. This mini-mag was purchased from Josten's/Hunter and added considerable color to the book design.

The approximate cost of printing this book is $24,000. This figure includes publishing costs, freight charges, shipping of materials to North Carolina, candid photography expenses, and other supplies. The per copy cost of the book is $25.00 payable in advance. Other monies are raised through an assessment to the Senior Class, the sponsoring of an all-school dance, the running of the hamburger and candid photography booth at the school's annual Cow Chip Festival, a parent ad and sponsor/patron solicitation, and the proceeds of three soda machines in the school. The book contains no commercial advertising; and its 256 pages reflect the entire student population.

Candid photographs in the book were taken by students (both on and off the staff). Senior portraits were taken by Ken Parker and his associates at Photography By Kenneth Parker of Holden, the designated official yearbook photographer. Other professional photographers did senior portraits. Athletics (both team shots and candids), faculty formals, clubs and organizations, underclassmen (group photos) and other major school events were photographed at no charge to the Yearbook by Photography By Kenneth Parker.

Thank You

The staff of the Mountaineer would be at a total loss without the help of several individuals who make our job easier and a lot less WILD. So, for the outstanding contribution to Mountaineer, '92; we'd like to thank . . .

Arnie Lohmann, our company rep from Josten's/Hunter Publications. Thanks for all your help, especially this year, when we taxed creativity to the max! Thanks also for your help in making deadlines and easing stress. We appreciated it WILDLY!

Ken Parker or Photography By Kenneth Parker. I honestly don't know how we could get everything photographed on our own and as well as you did. You show real patience with the staff and I over the course of the year, and you've never let me down. If I needed it yesterday, it was here the day before. We're WILD about you.

Also to Paul and Elizabeth from Photography By Kenneth Parker. You were a big help to us in group photography and organizing the senior section — no small task! We won't be as WILD in the future.

Mrs. Donna Laramee, our financial advisor. For all her hard, sometimes, unrecognized work. I can get the book put together with the staff; but our work is for nothing if we can't pay for it. You're a WILD and great lady. Thanks a bunch.

All the faculty and administration who supported us. Whether it was as a dance chaperone or someone who cared enough to ask "how's it going?" we needed encouragement and many of you were there to offer it. Thanks especially to Dr. Edward Yaglou and Mrs. Lynn Swidey — you had to listen to every little problem and petty complaint — thanks for not telling me to "Be quiet." I do get WILD sometimes!

And everybody else, this was a great year, it produced a great book — let's put 1992 behind us, and take a WALK ON THE WILD SIDE!
